If you encounter any problems or do not have the ability to register on line please contact the chairperson of the festival and alternative arrangements will be made.

CONDUCTORS' BIOGRAPHIES

VOCAL JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Mr. Jeffrey Welcher received his Bachelor of Music Education degree from the Crane School of Music at Potsdam College in Potsdam, N.Y., and his Master of Music Education from West Chester State University in West Chester, Pa. He is currently Vocal Music Director at Oneida High School in Oneida N.Y. where he conducts Concert Choir, Freshmen Boys Chorus, Girls Chorus, Vocal Jazz Ensemble and Freshmen Jazz Lab.

Mr. Welcher has been involved with the New York State School Music Association Conference Vocal Jazz Ensemble as chairman and is one of a small number of teachers certified for Vocal Jazz Adjudication in New York State. He has done guest conducting and adjudicating for All-County, Regional and All-State Choirs and Vocal Jazz Ensembles throughout the Northeast.

Mr. Welcher is an active member on ACDA, serving as Eastern Division Repertoire and Standards Committee Chairman for Jazz Ensembles. He is also a member of IAJE and the 2003 recipient of the Syracuse Symphony Musicians Award for Outstanding Choral Director.

As a performer, Mr. Welcher is a member of the Syracuse Vocal Ensemble, an active church soloist/organist and jazz vocalist/pianist.

SENIOR HIGH MIXED CHOIR

Since 1995, Scott Tucker has been Director of Choral Music at Cornell University where he conducts the Cornell University Chorus and Glee Club, as well as overseeing the activities of the Cornell Chorale, Chamber Singers, and Sage Chapel Choir. He also teaches courses in music theory and conducting. Under Professor Tucker's leadership, the Chorus and Glee Club have expanded the breadth of their activities. In February 1997, the ensembles joined internationally known world music artist Samite of Uganda to present "One Voice," a benefit concert of African songs, which raised over nine thousand dollars for AIDS Work of Tompkins County. The Syracuse Symphony Orchestra invited Tucker to prepare the Glee Club and Chorus for two performances of Verdi's Requiem in February 1998. The ensembles also sang Bach's St. John's Passion with renowned German tenor Peter Schreier as both Evengelist and conductor in April of 1999. In May 1997, Tucker and the Glee Club performed on the Prairie Home Companion broadcast from Ithaca, hosted by Garrison Keillor.

Prior to coming to Cornell, Professor Tucker was Choral Director of Milton Academy (MA) who's Chamber Singers toured the United States and Kenya. Also under his direction, the Milton Academy Chamber Singers performed at the 1992 American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) Eastern Convention, and the Academy's Glee Club was the sole featured choral ensemble at the 1995 National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) National Convention. Tucker received a Talbot Baker Award in 1993 for excellence in teaching.

In addition to his work at Milton, Professor Tucker was affiliated with choral music at Harvard University where, from 1987 to 1993, he was Assistant Conductor of both the Harvard Glee Club and the Harvard-Radcliffe Chorus. Tucker received a Masters of Music degree in Choral Conducting from the New England Conservatory in 1981, and a Bachelor of Science degree from Tufts University, also in 1981.

Elementary Orchestra

Susan Weber has been a teacher in the Uniondale School district for the past 24 years. She has taught elementary and middle school strings. Ms. Weber is active in county and state organizations in many capacities. She is a past president and is still active on the boards of the Nassau County Music Educators Association and the Long Island String Festival Association. She is finishing her fourth year as Third Vice President of the New York State School Music Association and has been active as a Regular and All-State String Adjudicator and a Major Organization Adjudicator. Ms. Weber has been a guest conductor for Suffolk County Music Educators Association, The Long Island String Festival, and The Sewanhaka School District All District Orchestra. She is active as a musical director for community theatre and plays violin and viola in many symphony and pit orchestras in the Long Island area.

GREECE ATHENA JAZZ ENSEMBLE TO HOST

THE WORLD FAMOUS

GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA

On Friday evening, October 29th, 2004 at 6:15PM the Greece Athena Jazz Ensemble will host “The World Famous GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA” LIVE!!...In Concert for one night only, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29TH, 2004 @ 6:15PM. The Glenn Miller Orchestra is the most popular and sought after big band in the world today for both concert and swing dance engagements. With its unique jazz sound, the Glenn Miller Orchestra is considered to be one of the greatest big bands of all time! The present Glenn Miller Orchestra was formed in 1956 and has been touring consistently since, playing an average of 300 live dates a year all around the world. Trombonist Larry O'Brien is the orchestra's present musical director.

Athena Jazz Ensemble director, Gary J. Samulski says, “this performance is a fantastic opportunity for the citizens of Greece and the greater Rochester, N.Y. area to experience an authentic American Legend. It is also a very special educational experience for the student musicians to see, hear, and open for the classic sounds of big band jazz professionally performed by one of the world's greatest bands. This appearance of the Glenn Miller Orchestra marks the groups 4th visit to the Greece Athena Performing Arts Gymnasium.

Proceeds from this performance will be put towards the Athena Jazz Ensemble's trip in the spring of 2005 to visit New Orleans...the birthplace of jazz!!! While under the directorship of Mr. Samulski, the Athena Jazz Ensemble has competed in 18 National Music Festivals receiving a GOLD MEDAL (90% or higher!) in each of these festivals. While in New Orleans, they will compete in a National Music Festival; perform a noontime concert on the banks of the Mississippi River; visit Preservation Hall and catch a performance of the Dukes of Dixieland while having a Creole buffet dinner on an authentic steamboat.

Having the opportunity open for the world famous Glenn Miller Orchestra is a tall order for any group.....let alone a high school jazz ensemble. But to quote current leader Larry O'Brien after their last visit in 2001.....”The Athena Jazz Ensemble can open for us ANYTIME!” Joining the Athena Jazz Ensemble that night will be special performances by two Greece Central Music Staff members; vocalist Kathryn Dyer (Athena HS/MS Choir Director) and performing a tribute to Benny Goodman, clarinetist Tom Ellison (Craig Hill Elementary School Band Director).

All seats are at reserved tables. Admission is $22.00 per ticket. Please call any of the following telephone numbers to reserve tickets: 966-4000; 966-4366 or 966-4040. All remaining tickets at the door (...if there are any....will be $25.00 each). You can contact Athena Jazz Ensemble Director Gary J. Samulski @ gary.samulski@greece.k12.ny.us or by call any of the above telephone numbers.

Thank you for any/all of your help in informing the public of this great evening. The student jazz musicians appreciate your assistance in this endeavor.
